

School's back in session and the kids are loving it. With all the activities children are pre-occupied with, parents and drivers should pay attention to them as they make their way to and from school.

Increase in Wasatch School Attendance

WASATCH COUNTY (LRJ)
Figures released for Wasatch County School District show that 2,561 students are enrolled for the 1984-85 school year. The actual figures reported may change slightly as families arrive and depart, but, for the most part, the figures should remain quite constant throughout the year.

Wasatch High School reports 192 ninth graders, 158 tenth graders, 143 eleventh graders and 119 twelfth graders, a total of 612.

The Middle School gives 179 in sixth, 175 in seventh, and 174 in eighth grade, totaling 527.

Midway Elementary claims a total of 350.

Central Elementary mentions 343.

J.R. Smith declares 723 students enrolled there.

There will be: 236 kindergartens, 258 in first; 266 in second; 254 in third; 185 in fourth, and 217 in fifth. A total of 1416 students will be enrolled in elementary grades and 1139 will be attending secondary schools.

The Training Center will teach six students.

There are eight Kindergarten classes, eight first grade, nine second grade, eight third grade, seven fourth grade, and eight fifth grade classes.
